

Jenna Beane was born in a small town in South Carolina, but grew up most of her life in Winston-Salem, NC. She met her husband Brian while on vacation, and as they will tell you “The rest is history”. They have two wonderful children, Isabella and Landon, and call Archdale home. Together in 2011, Brian and Jenna opened a home renovation company that is still to this day growing and thriving. A graduate of Salem College in Winston-Salem, Jenna started her career in banking while working as a teller in college. Her career and love for banking continued, and she now lives her best life as Area Retail Manager for First Bank and enjoys every minute! Jenna enjoys giving back to the community through her various involvement in High Point. She is currently the Chair of Women in Motion; and initiative of the United Way of Greater High Point, the Co-Chair of Leadership High Point through the Chamber of Commerce and serves on the Board of Directors for United Way of Greater High Point. When Jenna is not found around the city, you will most likely find her on the lake hanging out with her family, friends, and their two Australian Sheppard’s.
