

Marshall Morgan is a native of High Point and has been a top real estate broker in High Point for almost 20 years. He and his wife, Kathleen have two daughters, Laurel Smith (husband Blair) and Liz Winn (husband Chris) and one grandson, Bodie. Marshall and his children are all graduates of High Point Central High School. Marshall is an active member of First United Methodist Church, Rotary Club of High Point and HP Y's Men's Club. In a previous era of his life, Marshall participated in High Point Community Theater musicals, where he enjoyed singing and dancing. Marshall is dedicating his dancing and his fundraising to the beloved memory of his dear friend Gina Jacobs, who passed away tragically ten years ago. Gina was a staunch advocate for CIS. She raised money to help a local, struggling elementary school and got many involved (including Marshall) as tutors and lunch buddies.
