

Originally from Thomasville and a graduate of North Carolina State University, Kent Thompson has called High Point home since 2012. He began his career at High Point Regional Health System in 1987 and has been in the healthcare finance field for over 30 years. Currently, Kent serves as the Chief Financial Officer for Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital in Elkin, NC. Being involved in the community is important to Kent and he currently serves on the board of the Community Clinic of High Point as treasurer. Having served as a youth director for nearly 20 years, Kent is very excited to have the opportunity to participate and support Communities in School of High Point as they support the children of High Point.

Kent has been married to his wife, Robin, for 10 years. He has a son, Josh, and a step-daughter, Heather. Josh and his wife Morgan reside in Franklin, TN with their two beautiful daughters, Isabella Grace and Isla Jo, who refer to Kent as “Grand-Dude”. Heather is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker in Charlotte and is involved in the local theater scene. In addition, Kent and Robin have another special member of their household, Cooper, their 18 year-old Shih Tzu, who is really the man of the house.
